

Action Taken Report 2016-2017

1. Feedback from Parents Teachers Association

SL.No.	Feedback	Action Taken
1.	Parents suggested that special coaching classes be conducted for the benefit of students to prepare for NET/SET.	All the Departments of the University have been conducting NET and SET coaching for the interested students regularly. However, the Head of the Departments have been asked to streamline the activities for better results.
2.	Parents wished that their wards may be taught current affairs and recent technology in their chose field of study addition to the regular curriculum and syllabi for their benefits.	All the Members of the BoS were instructed to include topics on current affairs and recent technology wherever necessary in the curriculum / syllabi to help the students prepare for competitive examinations too.

2. Feedback from Alumni Students:

SL.No.	Feedback	Action Taken
1.	Topics on Human Rights be incorporated in the curriculum / syllabi.	A course on Human Rights is being taught for all the PG students in the University Departments.

3. Feedback from Students:

SL.No.	Feedback	Action Taken
1.	Evaluation should be done based on correctness of answers alone.	All the members of faculty were strictly asked to evaluate the answer scripts as per the scheme of evaluation.
2.	Basic skills enrichment should be devised and implemented as part of curriculum beyond their main course of study.	All the Chairmen of BoS were instructed to include more job oriented courses for broadening the scope of skills enrichment, employability prospects, and self-employment.
