University Research Fellowship Guidelines-Revised

The Following procedure be followed while selecting research scholars for the existing URF vacancies in the department.

1. The existing full time non-stipendiary research scholars working in the departments are to be accommodated in the URF vacancies of the respective departments, by rotation, among faculty members.
2. While awarding the URF, the seniority of the research scholars have to be taken in the account.
3. The tenure of the URF for candidates with M.Phil. degree may be for a period of two years only. For candidates selected with only PG degree, the extension may be considered for the third year if the candidate applied for the same at least one month prior to the completion of two years from the date of joining fellowship and based on the recommendations of the expert committee nominated by the University (VC Nominee: Dean of respective faculty, HOD & Supervisor) The URF recipients of the Departments have to submit a progress report with reprints of their publications arised during the period of research on every six months.
4. There will be a review of URF fellowship annually, that will assess the performance of the URF's by the respective expert committee (VC nominee: Dean of respective faculty, HOD & Supervisor) in the departments. HOD shall forward the committee report to the Registrar.
